*If Salem State is not conveniently located for you, you may attend a SIFI (Seminar in Field Instruction) at another School of Social Work. All schools that take part in the New England Consortium of Social Work Field Education Directors (NECON) usually offer seminar trainings, so if geography is an inconvenience you may register with any of the training sites. Please directly contact the other Schools of Social Work by going to: www.neconsortium.com Professional Development tab; SIFI.
